Accessing Videos in American History in Video

American History in Video is an online collection of American history videos with full-text, printable transcripts. Video coverage spans from the eighteenth century to modern day.

To get to American History in Video start on the UA-PTC Libraries homepage: http://www.uaptc.edu/library.

- Click on the Databases button.
- Select American History in Video from the alphabetical list of databases.

To see how American History in Video works, let’s look for videos of former First Lady Michelle Obama.

Start by typing Michelle Obama in the search box.
Results are sorted in order of relevance.
Click on a video to view it or, hover your mouse over the video to get the See Details.
The Details screen will show the length of the video and give a summary of its contents.
Complete transcripts of each video are accessible in the full screen view.